New Board to Decide Project

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

Development of a proposed 772-acre residential-commercial project in Chouteau and Edwardsville Townships was delayed at the final session of the Madison County Board of Supervisors, which referred the matter to the new County Board during its final meeting Friday morning in Edwardsville.

The new board held its organization meeting this morning. Members of the old board were hesitant in making a decision on a recommendation by the County Zoning Board of Appeals to approve the development, proposed by a land trust in which Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk is the spokesman.

Sasyk had urged a delay in the decision.

Board members were apprehensive because of a threat by a federal Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) administrator to cut off federal funds in the county, including the local four-township sewer program, if approval was granted.

Sasyk was on hand at the meeting, but discussion was conducted by board members only.

Walter Sparks, supervisor of Chouteau Township, where most of the proposed project is located, remarked that "I want to see development in my township."

Referring to St. Louis influence on efforts to block the development, he asked, "Why build levees in Missouri when we already have levees here?"

Sparks Concerned

He also expressed concern over the HUD threat, noting that federal funds are necessary if Chouteau Township is to obtain sewers.

A motion to refer the matter to the new board was made by Nameeki Township Supervisor Louis Whitsett on the basis that the county board had yet to receive engineering plans on drainage and land use involving the area, and also pending "HUD approval."

HUD approval was deleted in an amendment to the resolution.

Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney and legal advisor to the board, insisted that it was not up to HUD to approve or disapprove of engineering or land use plans. He added, "But I would imagine we'll wind up with an arrangement with them."

In the Courthouse corridors, Smith and several board members expressed doubt that HUD has authority to block all federally financed projects in the county, but noted that in the bureaucratic process HUD might be able to delay funds indefinitely.

Smith pointed to another problem: "Development in the bluffs increase drainage difficulties in the bottoms."

"There is more involved than Sasyk's project (referring to the controversy on land use and a proposed Madison County Plan submitted by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Plan Commission).

$7 Million in Balance

"We've got to talk to HUD because they have $7 million (in proposed county projects) hanging in the balance."

Nelson Hagnauer, Granite City Township supervisor and county board chairman, remarked that "we don't want anybody's project knocked out because of what HUD might think."

Other members remarked that "we can handle our own problems."

In checking legal aspects of the zoning provisions, the Press-Record was told by

The executive board of the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, has approved realignment of the 12 scout regions in the United States. Final approval is expected May 19 at the National Council meeting, to be held in California.

It was learned from the United States Delegation for the 1972 session of the Conference of the Committee on Disarmament in Geneva, Switzerland.

The new alignment is to take effect immediately after the official vote of approval, and officers for the six new regions will be elected at the May 19 meeting.

At an executive board meeting of the local Cahokia Mound Council Thursday evening in Highland, Sternberg further reported that the four councils of Southern Illinois, with headquarters in Alton, Granite City, Belleville and Herrin, will become part of the same region as St. Louis.

The four Southern Illinois councils are presently part of Region Seven, headquartered in Chicago.

The new region to be known as North Central will be headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., and include the states of Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and eastern Montana.

The 12-region plan began in 1912 following somewhat the geographic lines of the Federal Reserve Bank system, and there have been very few adjustments in regional boundaries since.

The recommendation for "a new management concept for field operations" was the result of "many months of study and work on the part of a field operations committee and five special task forces."

A BSA spokesman has related.

The six new regions will be subdivided into areas

Principal matters expected to be discussed during the 1972 CCD session include proposals for limitations on chemical

The 1972 session of the CCD opened on Feb. 29. The U. S. delegation to the CCD is headed by Ambassador Joseph Martin Jr. The session continued into late April and, after a recess, is to resume in early summer.

The Conference of the Committee on Disarmament, formerly known as the Eighteen-Nation Disarmament Committee (ENDC), came into being in 1961. ENDC membership was enlarged to 26 nations in 1969 and the name was changed.

The heads of the American and Soviet delegations are the permanent co-chairmen of the CCD. There are 24 other member nations representing the world's major geographic areas.

Although the CCD is not a United Nations body, it reports regularly to the UN General Assembly.

In addition to the U. S. and the Soviet Union, the following countries are members: Argentina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Burma, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Egypt, Ethiopia, Hungary, India, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Mongolia, Nigeria, Pakistan, Poland, Romania, Sweden, The United Kingdom, and Yugoslavia. France is a member but has chosen not to take a seat at the conference.

MORE ABOUT New Board
Smith and Jack Clifford, county zoning administrator and building official, that if the county board takes no action within 120 days of its presentation to the board, denial would be automatic.
The proposition had been before the board for 72 days at the Friday meeting, it was said. Generally, the land trust could ask the Circuit Court for an administrative review, it was related.
Clifford noted that if the board deems that it has insufficient information, the 120-day period could be extended, according to previous state judicial decisions.
Smith on numerous occasions has informed the board that developers have won favorable court decisions on 90% or more of the occasions when suits were filed for administrative review.
Ouster Move Fails
An attempt to oust Clifford from his position was made in a motion by Frank Vived of Collinsville Township, who asked for Clifford's resignation or his outright "coming."
The motion got nowhere, though Vived charged Clifford with "total disregard to ethics and controversy" in his actions.

Three Persons Injured
Three persons complained of pains as autos driven by Alan A. Stawor, 2809 Burger Ave., Paul C. Huelsman, 26 of 3877 Rodney Ave., Melvin R. Myers, Wood River, and Wilbert E. Herman, 18, of 340 Lenox Ave., were in an accident at 4:40 p.m. Sunday at Pontion Road and Vine Boulevard. Hurt were Herman, Huelsman and a passenger in his auto, Sue Langhorne, 24, of St. Louis.
regarding the Chouteau Township development and previous developments regarding landfills and other matters.
Clifford had support, Rodger Eible, Wood River Township supervisor, disagreed with Vived.
"He has given some valuable service to the county. He has been a tremendous help," Eible said.
Smith added that "Clifford has been one of the most miserable jobs in the county." He supplemented the remark by saying that an official in such a position is criticized regardless of decisions by others (in this case, the zoning appeals board).
In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Harry R. Johnson, 75, of Madison, as a member of the county's 38th Mental Health Board, on which he served five years. Ragnauer appointed James DeKuntz of Granite City as his successor.
Approve Condemnations
The board approved a resolution for condemnation proceedings on "establishments along Collinsville Road, including Bird State Park, O.K. Cafe, Gray's, Blue Motel, Grace's Tavern, State Park Tavern and Red Men. The action calls for razing of the structures."

Still Have Funds to Relocate Broadway
By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
The city of Venice ended its 1972 fiscal year with balances totaling $43,400 in the general fund and $884,406 in the city's 15 special accounts. City council members were informed Friday night in a special meeting called to wind up municipal financial matters for the end of the fiscal year. The new fiscal year for Venice and all other cities and villages in the Quad-City area begins today.
General fund expenditures during the past fiscal year totaled $744,667 against total available funds of $788,068 made up of a $109,477 balance at the beginning of the year on May 1, 1971, and receipts throughout the year amounting to $678,590. Bulk of the special account balance is made up of $245,700 in the McKinley Bridge Revenue account — an escrow fund from which Venice will pay its share of the cost for relocation of Broadway — $173,766 in the Mayor's fund and $40,950 in the Police Pension Fund. Special account balances also included $316,282 in the Public Library fund and $60,146 in the Working Cash fund.
Some Account Deficits
A report by City Treasurer Donald Anderson to the city council showed three accounts within the general fund ended the fiscal year with deficits. The largest was the police protection account which began the last fiscal year with a deficit of $88,987. For the year, it totaled $66,700, while expenditures for all purposes amounted to $176,593, leaving a year-end deficit of $109,893.
A deficit of $25,726 was reported in the street and bridge fund which began the year with an $11,055 deficit and had receipts of $80,735 and expenditures of $80,506. The Audit account had a $13.97 deficit. That account had no balance at the beginning of the year, had receipts of $636 and expenditures of $650.
The council approved the year-end treasurer's report and adopted resolutions transferring funds from other accounts to retire the general fund deficits. There were no deficits in the special accounts.
Chief of Police Ralph D. Brawley reported that the police department arrested a total of 203 persons during the year, including 297 adults and 96 juveniles. The city received during the year a total of $2,618 as fines collected in disposition of the cases.
The council adopted a resolution requesting the use of specialized equipment from the Illinois State Division of Highways and providing for rental payments. The equipment, known as a "snapper" is to be used by city engineers in making the annual inspection of the underside of the city-operated McKinley bridge.
The "snapper" equipment, made necessary by stringent federal safety regulations, is not available from the state source within a 500-mile radius of Venice, the resolution said.
A resolution accepting a sewer main easement from the Illinois Power Co. on land is the E.C. Robinson subdivision also was approved by the council.

GOOD TASTE IN MEDICINES
Everyone prefers a pleasant tasting and pleasant smelling medication. For when we are ill, we are usually more aware of these two sensations. Somehow if the prescription does taste, smell and look good, it not only helps the body to get well, but it can help to ease the mind, give a lift to the spirit and calm the emotions.
Whenever a liquid medicine is released for public use and the manufacturer has sent us our first supply, we make it a point to see what its physical properties are like before we put it on the "new drug" shelf in our prescription department. Nowadays it seems that almost everyone of these TASTES, SMELLS, and LOOKS good.

Equal Rights Law Topic At State B&PW Meeting

One of the main topics discussed during the 51st state convention of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., in Chicago, concerned the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment bill by the U. S. Congress, to be ratified by the states before it becomes law.

Passage and ratification of the ERA bill will strengthen and expand legislation on equal employment, equal pay and equal retirement benefits, delegates were told. The bill also revises the income tax laws to provide equal treatment for married and single persons; eases the financial burdens for employed women with children by increasing the tax deduction for dependent care and establishes developmental child care services. It provides for equality of opportunity in educational institutions; establishes uniform jury service requirements in all courts; and ratifies the United Nations Convention on the Political Rights of Women. The 1,126 delegates elected

Mrs. Catherine Burton of Collinsville, a member of District #4, as second vice-president. Other officers elected include Mrs. Eleanor Rose Burke of Canton, president; Mrs. Violet L. Casper, president-elect; and Miss Kay Howell, Skokie Valley, first vice-president. Programs outlined for the coming year will be "Women Helping Women, Speaking Out." Topics will include "Buying and Investing Wisely"; "Saving Nature"; and "Saving Humanity," as special programs. Career advancement scholarships, membership by objectives and money and principles relating to the public relation plans, also are among projected programs.

Delegates attending the convention meetings represented 10,000 B&PW members in the state federation. Highlights of the convention were appearances of U. S. Senator Charles Percy and Mrs. Richard Ogilvie.

Themes for 1972-73 will be "Objectives in Action," it was learned during the opening session at the Marriott Motor Hotel in Chicago.

Twelve members of the Granite City B&PW club attended the three-day convention.

Six Going to Hockey School in Michigan

Enrollment is still open to young people for Michigan State University's unique Athletic Instructional School scheduled for the coming summer months. Early registration includes six Granite City youngsters in the hockey program.

The instructional school has been set up by the athletic department to give youngsters between the ages of nine and 17 years a chance to improve their personal skills and enjoy part of their vacation on the campus at East Lansing.

Programs in 12 sports will be offered, with all activities to be conducted on the actual playing areas, both indoor and outdoor, of the Michigan State Spartans.

Regular Spartan Coaches
Each program will offer boys and girls the opportunity to work with regular Spartan coaching staff members, including football coach Duffy Daugherty and his staff, basketball coach Gus Ganakas, hockey coach Amo Bessone and baseball coach Danny Litwiler.

"The response to the school has been excellent," says Gene Kenney, assistant to the athletic director. "We still have openings in all the programs but we anticipate close to full enrollments in most areas by early June."

Youngsters enrolled will live in college dormitories and be supervised by full-time resident advisors.

Seven one-week sessions, running from June 18 through Aug. 4, are available to both boarding and non-boarding applicants.

OUT AT THIRD BASE IS SIU-SW's Bill Campbell as Arkansas State's Tommy Fowler makes the tag in a doubleheader yesterday. The Cougars' set, tied for a split, losing a 6-4 heartbreaker in the first game and coming back to take the nightcap 7-4.

Cougars Split Pair With Arkansas State 6-4, 7-4

The ability to bounce back is the mark of a champion in most sports, but in baseball it's all important.

Southern Illinois University-Southwestern's baseball team, for the third time this season, rebounded yesterday to split a doubleheader with a good and fast-improving Arkansas State University team, dropping the opener in a real heart-breaker, 6-4, but winning the nightcap, 7-4.

The loss and victory made the Cougars' record 19-8-1 for the season and improved their chances of receiving their third straight bid to the Midwest NCAA regional tournament of the college division.

Arkansas State is in the university division of the NCAA and came into Edwardsville fresh from 21 and 5-4 victories over powerhouse Mississippi State in mid-week on the Rebels' diamond, no mean feat.

Cougar Roy Lee of SIU-SW had said before the Arkansas State twinnings: "I'll use every body to take these two . . . they are important to our getting that bid." He started his ace right-hander, Don Rouns of Granite City, who went into the game 4-0 for the season.

It looked like the Cougars were going to win the opener as they took a 2-2 lead into the eighth frame, but a leadoff double by the Indiana third baseman Tommy Fowler, a whiff (after a strikeout), and a fielder's choice with everyone else set the stage for a lone triple by the winners' Pete Davis to give the visitors a 4-3 lead.

That was all for Rains, who was relieved by Ron Middleton. A single by Larry Fimone drove in the third run of the inning and the Cougars trailed, 5-3, after scoring another run in the eighth frame, Arkansas went into the last of the ninth leading, 6-3, when the Cougars put out on a rally which fell short.

The first game loss dimmed some terrific hitting by the Cougars. Ron Rohlfing, who was 3-for-4 including a tremendous triple in the fourth which drove in two SIU-SW runs. Dave Runk of Arkansas State homered in the second with a mate on base.

In the second game, the Cougars came out clanking . . . and hitting.

They scored one in the first frame, four in the second and two in the third, and then hung on behind the nine-hit pitching of starter Dave Wilfingers and the brilliant relief stint of Spry Stewart who came on in the final inning with one run-in and a man on base and got one batter to pop up and fanned the final two. It was Stewart's third save to go with his two victories.

Wilfingers helped his own cause by singling home two runs in the third. Bill Campbell's single was the big blow in the Cougars' four-run second.

The Cougars also split a doubleheader on Thursday at home with Indiana State Evansville, dropping the first game 2-1 and taking the nightcap 7-1.

Sam Stewart scattered five hits in the SIU-SW victory, and Rouns came through with a two-run double in a six-run sixth inning.

Ken Demarecz started on the mound in the opener, was relieved by Middleton in the seventh and Steve Malone in the eighth.

Rained out Saturday at Jacksonville in a scheduled twinnings against the McMurry College Highlanders, whom the Cougars beat in the Quincy College four-pair, 7-4, the SIU-SW baseballers faced a severe test this coming weekend, meeting the Ohio State University Buckeyes of the Big Ten in back-to-back double-headers, starting with a pair on Friday and two on Saturday.

The Cougars will play host to always tough Western Illinois University in four games Friday and Saturday and will then close out their regular season with a twinnings against Eastern Illinois University Wednesday, May 17, at Charleston. Whether or not the rained out games with McMurry College can be "reset" hasn't been determined.

At the SIU-SW season nears its climax, it is becoming more and more clear that the loss of veteran . . . and co-captain Jerry Pickler of Collinsville was a tough setback, even though he is back for another season. The loss, too, of Mike Allara of Edwardsville with a jammed finger has also hurt the Cougars in their stretch drive for an almost unbelievable third straight NCAA tournament bid.

Most SIU baseball fans, however, think their Cougars will do it again, one because of their win-loss record and secondly, because of the toughness of their schedule.

Like Tomlinson, coach of the tied for a split, losing a 6-4 heartbreaker in the first game and coming back to take the nightcap 7-4.

1 Game Opens Inter-City Play

Wet diamonds held the opening day of the 1972 Illinois Inter-City League to one game Sunday as Glen Carbon topped Highland-Pierson 7-2. Bruce Blumer belted a two-run homer for the losers.

The league was formerly called the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City Baseball League, but according to Ollie H. Miller, league president, everyone likes the shorter name. The league has been in existence for 42 years.

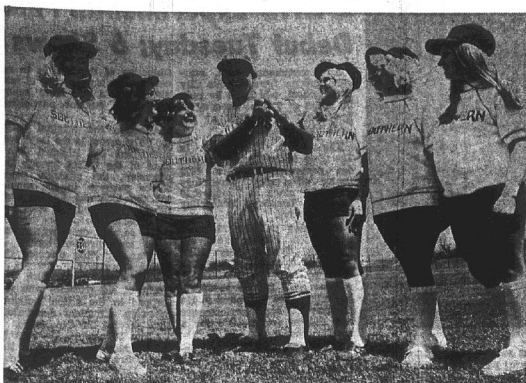

Maryville did not field a team this year; however the void was quickly filled by the Piasa Indians from Piasa, Ill.

On May 7 Glen Carbon will play Moltior at Collinsville; Fairfax at Troy; St. Mary's against Van's in East Alton; and Mercer's play host to Piasa.

GCHS Experimental Film Debut Tuesday; 6 Shows

An experimental film, starring students from Granite City Senior High School, will have its public debut at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Room 213 Study Hall at the local high school.

The movie, "Tomorrow Is The Day After Today," replaces presentation of a 1972 senior class play. Screenings will take place at 7 and 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Admission will be 75 cents per person. Tickets are available at Granite City High School or from any senior year student.

Seats may not be reserved, but attendance is limited to 120 persons at each performance and tickets are marked for a specific showing.

Filed on video tape, the innovative production will be screened on two 25-inch closed circuit television sets, provided by State Radio and Television.

Objective of the film is to encourage widespread use of television within the local school system, a student participant explained.

Although the original script for "Tomorrow Is The Day" was authorized by Richard King, head of the GCHS Speech Department, the students themselves perform in the movie, set the locations and operate the cameras and the television equipment.

The camera crew was supervised and directed by A. J. Mueller Jr. King directed the acting sequences.

The story deals with the plight of six students who are trapped in the school building following a nuclear detonation. Five survive the experience.

About 30 seniors are cast in the production. Starting as the lead characters are Gary Bowman, Debbie Calvert, Barbara Little, Mark Ortiz, Corby Rathman and Dennis Ross.

Pontoon Board Authorizes Drainage Work

The Pontoon Beach village board granted permission Thursday night for initiating three projects to improve drainage in the village.

The three projects, totaling between $15,000 and $20,000, call for an underground storm water drainage pipe between Victoria and Fontainebleau drives in the Lakewood Estates, the clearing of all existing storm water drains in Lakewood Estates and construction of a drainage ditch from the Georgetown field to Long Lake.

The trustees gave Fred Recer, chairman of the street and alley committee, permission to hire Sheppard, Morgan and Schwab, Inc., civil engineers, to survey the drainage area between Victoria and Fontainebleau drives and to prepare specifications for the underground drainage system.

Recer estimated the project will cost between $12,000 and $15,000 if done by an outside contractor and about $8,000 if the village street department completes the work.

The statement drew criticism from Trustee Dean Rochester who said he would rather pay the extra money for an outside contractor rather than see the job "botched up," Recer commented, "I don't care who does the work, just so it gets done."

Ditch Authorized
The board also gave Recer permission to begin the task of digging the ditch from the Georgetown field to Long Lake. Recer estimated the work would take three days and the cost would be less than $2,000.

He also told the board that there is a possibility the Illinois Division of Highways may reimburse the village for a portion of the cost of the project.

"The water there is runoff from Route 111. The highway is flooding us so I think they should agree to pay for part of the project," Recer said.

Contract for the third project, the cleaning of all storm water drains in Lakewood Estates, was granted to Roto Rooter Co., St. Louis, on a low bid of $3,750.

Two bids were opened for the project.

In other business, the board approved an annual budget of $94,443 for general village expenses and $4,900 for sewer fund expenses.

The general fund includes $11,828 for administration, $12,650 for operating expenses, $2,000 for the zoning board and $87,725 for police department expenses. The largest single item is $45,000 for police salaries.

Resolution Uses Falsehoods, Half-Truths In Effort to Block Development of County

A proposed resolution presented to the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council board of directors April 26 is printed elsewhere on this page. Tabled at the request of a Madison County member, the statement is revealing in the way it discusses development in this county.

It emphasizes zoning for agricultural use while failing to note that the prevailing practice in this county, whether right or wrong, was to zone all undeveloped land as agricultural pending specific development requests. It next cites "serious environmental questions" without outlining them.

The resolution makes the flat statement that "non-agricultural development in this flood plain area will cause additional water runoff which may result in severe flooding problems for areas located south of this development, namely, the Counties of St. Clair, Monroe, St. Louis and Jefferson and the City of St. Louis." Even if interior flooding was as bad as described, which is not documented, there is no way Missouri could be flooded by the obvious falsehood remains in the statement.

It also makes the frequent point that there should not be any disregarding or inconsistency with a planner's proposed county land use plan, while failing to say that such a plan gains validity only through evaluation, necessary revision and adoption, none of which have been completed.

Such an unfair resolution, assembling half-truths, untruths and illogic to make points that demonstrably are incorrect was unworthy of the Gateway Council's Environmental Task Force, which recommended it.

New United Fund Drive Chairman Paul Kelly Deserves Full Support by All Quad-Cities

Leadership of the United Fund campaign in recent years has been not only a high honor but a considerable challenge. In accepting the position of drive chairman, A. O. Smith Corporation Manager Paul H. Kelly merits not only congratulations but fullhearted support by people of all walks of life and all income levels.

The campaign he will direct, based on agency budgets and a joint goal to be determined this spring and summer, will be conducted during the early fall.

His pledges and contributions will make up the bulk of the fund for operation of the City area service, health, welfare and character-building organizations during the 1973 calendar year.

With realistic budgeting, with emphasis on 100% LF participation by volunteer and business and groups—and with United Fund giving based on pay for 60 minutes' work a month, or more—it is well within the reach of this community to achieve an "over the top" LF fund drive this year. This is the objective of Mr. Kelly and his associates as planning progresses for the all-important yearly financial effort.

Fast-Developing Fuel Crisis Threatens Both Energy Requirements, Environmental Goals

Someday soon somewhere in the U. S., pre-dawn risers will flick their light switches and nothing will happen. For some, it will be their first full realization that the nation is facing an energy crisis.

There may be earlier indications. Higher prices for coal, gas, electrical power and other forms of energy could spotlight the issues of cost and availability. The expense of the search for new sources of energy, conversion processes and distribution methods inevitably will be passed to the consumer.

Interior Secretary Rogers Morton told the House Interior Committee, "The price of energy has been too cheap." He was among scores of witnesses urging in Washington hearings a concerted American effort to bridge the developing energy gap.

Fuel and power shortages have become a threat through a combination of federal policies and the mounting concern for the environment. For example, Federal Power Commission limits on natural gas rates have discouraged exploration for new gas reserves, the preferred non-polluting fuel for power plants.

About 50 nuclear power plants scheduled to begin operations this year have been delayed at various stages of planning or construction by legal actions or other pressures by environmental groups. In a number of cases, required "environmental impact statements" have been chosen as a target of lengthy litigation.

Vast untapped pools of crude oil remain locked in underground reservoirs on Alaska's North Slope. 1973 estimates for tapping this reserve has become doubtful due to a delaying crusade against the proposed pipeline.

Many natural gas companies, including Illinois Power Co., have had to limit new industrial customers. Off-shore drilling restrictions have prevented development of oil fields beneath the U. S. Outer Continental Shelf.

Something has to give. Price adjustments seem unavoidable. Relief of fuel shortages does not be achieved solely through increased dependence on imports, since this involves problems of national security and balance of payments.

A key element must be energy supply solutions consistent with environmental goals.

Experiences like oil spills spotlight a need for increased respect for the environment by business firms. And there also must be more flexibility on the part of environmental protectors, particularly in view of the fact that a wide range of anti-pollution measures require adequate supplies of electric power, which has to be produced in some fashion.

Law & Defense Against Despotism, Anarchy

"Law Day, U.S.A.," observed each May 1, spotlights the structure of law which provides continuity for daily life in America and assurance of basic rights and dignity.

Although some dismiss the documents written by our founding fathers as mere scraps of paper, they are the first line of defense against, and which subsequent laws and interpretations have set forth the specific "ground rules" defining and protecting freedom, order and democratic processes.

Rule by law is infinitely superior to rule by individuals, however benevolent they may be. Our Law Day in 1972, Quad-Cities regard the system of law as a light to guide them through troubled times and a bulwark against both despotism and anarchy.

Mr. Maxine Costoff of Madison is heading up a road block action for May 5, 6, 7.

A road block is planned for Granite City at Namek and Johnson Roads on May 20, headed by Ted Gerstl and Susan Whited. Also, during the month, a volunteer will call at homes. Each person can make a difference in the care and treatment of the mentally ill with a contribution or participation in this county-wide campaign.

Continue Support of Government Decency, Dignity for Men -- Simon

To the Editor:

Losing an election is not easy—particularly when you expect to win—but I have much to be thankful for.

For 18 years, I have served the people of Illinois, first as a state representative, then as state senator, and now as lieutenant governor. I am grateful to the people of Illinois for that opportunity.

These have been exciting years, and years in which I have tried to repay the citizens with service to what I have believed to be their interest.

History can give a much more balanced judgment of that service than I can.

"Aren't you bitter about losing by some 40,000 votes after all you have done for the people of the state?" one woman wrote and asked, and others have said the same thing in other ways.

There is unhappiness in losing, obviously. When you read things said about you which are not true, but which many people must have believed, obviously it hurts some.

But bitterness can do no one any good.

Much remains to be done, if we are to move on in the progress in our society. Tears and bitterness and rehashing of what has happened in the past cannot and help to build a better future, and that's what we must be doing.

The day after the primary, I included a statement in my concession statement:

"It is easy in defeat to blame others; that is rarely accurate. And after a strenuous campaign, it is not easy to lose."

"I am sorry that I have let my supporters down."

"I regret the inadequacies of my campaign, inadequacies which others may see more clearly than I do. But I do not regret telling the people the truth. I hope I never become so eager for any prize that I corrupt the truth, as vice a corruption as any other."

"To those who feel that all is lost, let me remind these good friends that what you support was not only a man, but a cause. The cause of decency in government, of dignity for all men, needs your continued support, as it will have mine."

PAUL SIMON, Lieutenant Governor

MENTAL HEALTH FUND DRIVE BEING LAUNCHED

To the Editor:

The National Association for Mental Health is conducting, through its chapters, the nationwide annual fund drive during the month of May.

The Madison County Association for Mental Health is working toward improved care and treatment of the mentally ill and handicapped. We are dependent on volunteer contributions.

We have planned many fund-raising activities for the Quad-City community. We ask that the public welcome the mental health visitor, give generously and profit by the mental health literature he will leave at each home.

New Bid to End Death Penalty

By RAY SEARAT

Copy News Service

Springfield—The Illinois General Assembly once again has been asked to abolish the death penalty in criminal cases.

This time the legislation is sponsored by Rep. Leland Rayson, D-Tinley Park.

Rayson is sponsoring it despite the fact that the U. S. Supreme Court has before it a case that could eventually wipe out the death penalty throughout the nation. The California Supreme Court has before it a case that could eventually wipe out the death penalty throughout the nation. The California Supreme Court has before it a case that could eventually wipe out the death penalty throughout the nation.

For the past 10 years, the General Assembly in Illinois has been asked at one time or another either to abolish the death penalty or place a moratorium on it.

In some cases in the House, the bill has made it to the floor. But, for the most part, when similar legislation was tossed in the Senate hopper the bill has been killed in committee.

In 1967 and in 1969, the measure seeking a six-year moratorium on the death penalty got to the House floor. In 1967, the measure got up to passage stage, but when a final vote was taken it was defeated.

Then, in 1969, the bill was placed on the House calendar but no major action was ever taken. The 1967 and 1969 efforts were led by Rep. Robert E. Mann, D-Chicago.

Whether or not the court action in another state will have an effect remains to be seen. The big court decision will be on who the U. S. Supreme Court happens to decide. The bill in the House could get extensive hearings if it is decided to push bills in this session, as well as reserve legislation.

Presently, officials of the Illinois Parole and Pardon Board report, there are 32 persons under the death sentence in Illinois. Two were sentenced only recently; they were from Cook County.

There are 30 at the Joliet State Penitentiary in Joliet, while two of those under the death sentence are at the Psychiatric Division of the Menard Penitentiary in Chester.

It has been years since there has been an execution in an Illinois prison.

issues, but I can always use additional information.

4. Give me enough information so that I can work for you. What we call for is work in my office comprises about 20% of my mail.

There are problems individual Illinoisans are having with the federal government.

In order to provide rapid answers, I need a legible, dress and the pertinent identification numbers—Social Security—Veterans Administration or whatever.

Having your telephone number is also helpful to the member of my staff who works on a subject, share it with me. Please if we need to call for further information.

And, while a letter addressed to Senator Alfred Percy, White House, Springfield, Illinois, will eventually reach me (one did), I think it sooner if it is addressed to Senator Charles Percy, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C. 20540.

Letters Get Action Despite Their 750-a-Day Volume—Senator Percy

By U. S. SENATOR Charles H. Percy

Last week 3,500 of my constituents wrote to me. That's not a very heavy mail for a U. S. senator, since the mail count can run as high as 10,000 letters a day.

On a typical day, about 750 letters arrive at my Washington office, and many others are received at my offices in Chicago and Springfield.

The letters are important to me because they are a vital indicator of constituent sentiment. Keeping close to that sentiment is increasingly difficult, as legislative sessions in Washington stretch to 10 months a year or more, and as the population of our state increases.

So I look to the mail as my best "hotline" from the people back home.

Let me encourage all to use this mail "hotline" frequently. And, because I've had a great many questions about letter writing, let me tell you some of the things that will help me to use correspondence most effectively.

1. Write your own views, not someone else's; 10% to 15% of the letters I receive are form letters sent by lobbying groups.

Generally I am already aware of what these groups are saying. I am more appreciative of your personal views.

Currently I'm receiving bundles of form mail supporting the Farm Workers Federation more bundles from a Common Cause mailing favoring the Consumer Protection Bill and still more bundles on gun control from an Effingham group.

Last month there were 1,500 letters following a Chamber of Commerce mailing in opposition to the same consumer bill.

While the form letters are noted, your own experiences and observations on the problems of the day are more important to me.

2. It's best to be reasonably brief. Because of the volume of mail each day, mail that is as concise as the subject permits stands a better chance of being personally read and answered quickly. I'm apt to set aside for a while a 10-page, rambling epistle.

3. It's not necessary for letters to be typed, but they should be legible. Insofar as possible, letters should be addressed to a single issue.

3. I'm anxious to receive your constructive ideas.

If a bill deals with a problem you admit exists, but you believe the bill is the wrong approach, tell me what the right approach is, not just that you disagree.

If you have expert knowledge on a subject, share it with me. I have set up advisory committees in Illinois on important

Regional Report -- Drainage, Airport, Road, Music Festival, City Merger, Bridge News

(Illinois Metro East Industrial Development Corporation)

With the cooperation of the weather which brought torrential rains to the area, the search for solutions to drainage problems in this region is taking top billing.

At a briefing on interior flood control held at Granite City for local officials, U. S. Senator Adlai Stevenson and Corps of Engineers District Engineer Col. Guy Jester called for drainage to be coupled with future development in flood plain and other areas.

Sen. Stevenson, in addition to promising he would try to get federal support to solve area drainage problems, agreed with a need for adequate land use planning.

Contracts totaling $8.3 million for demolition of the St. Clair County Courthouse and all other buildings in the same block, and construction of a new courthouse, were awarded by the St. Clair Public Building Commission. Demolition is expected to start in May.

A group of citizens seeking to preserve the old courthouse asked the National Park Service to expedite action on nominating the building for the National Register of Historical Sites. Acceptance, making it eligible for a federal grant of 50% of funds needed for any restoration project, would apparently give the building no legal protection from demolition.

The Military Airfield Command's new 310,000-square-foot headquarters building at Scott Air Force Base was dedicated at ceremonies.

The $7.5 million structure is the nerve center for the global strategic airlift forces of the Air Force. In addition to this command post, the new building houses practically all headquarters offices under one roof for the first time.

Federal Aviation Administration approval for an 18,650-acre Waterloo site for the second major St. Louis area airport is expected within two months. April 21 was the deadline for completion of comments on the proposal by other federal agencies.

pany's report of a year-to-year gain of 13% in first-quarter sales and a 36% increase in net income.

Owens-Illinois reports quarterly sales and earnings improved over the same period a year ago, with net earnings at 99 cents a common share compared to 81 cents in the first quarter of 1971. Sales were at a record high for any previous first quarter.

Problems of conservation and pollution abatement were among topics to be discussed on Earth Day, April 24 at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern. Annual town meetings were held. Although the bulk of these township sessions were routine, several produced news.

Elected of Madison County townships — Nemo, Chouteau, Venice and Granite City — approved funds so that engineers can prepare final plans and specifications for a four-township sanitary sewer system.

St. Clair Township established a road fund tax.

A town elector mounted a strong attack on a proposed general assistance fund budget at the Belleville town meeting but lost the fight to cut the relief budget.

The elector did succeed in the use of a resolution forcing the town board to call a special town meeting later to consider adopting uniform guidelines for determining eligibility for township general assistance.

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie signed the Illinois Billboard Control Act, the major product of the first part of a new legislative session, and thereby released $32.4 million in federal highway funds held in escrow for the state. The $32.4 million had been threatened as a penalty loss in federal highway grants to the state if the billboard law was not enacted.

Gov. Ogilvie, in response to the Missouri plan for a vote by the people on the site for a second airport in the St. Louis area, commented that he sees little merit in holding the referendum. Some contend the plan is yet another part of a Missouri scheme to block location of the airport near Waterloo.
